Intellectual Property Rights* One-day national Workshop 30 September 2025

IPR Cell and Research and Development Cell, JGND PSOU organised one-day workshop on Intellectual Property Rights. Prof Rattan Singh, Vice-Chancellor, addressed the participants. He said that it is important to educate the academic community about IPR to maintain ethical standards and academic integrity. IPR provides framework to protect indigenous knowledge systems and individual inventions. The national workshop sensitized faculty and students about IPR and protecting ideas as well as creativity. It aimed to empower individuals, advance research and raise awareness about contributing to the knowledge economy responsibly and ethically. Dr Supreet Gill, UIILS, PU, gave real-life examples and practical insights to help participants understand why safeguarding ideas was as important as generating these. Dr Harkirandeep Kaur, Incharge IPR Cell, GNDU, Amritsar discussed the patents, startups and entrepreneurship.

"Aligning with national and global standards, the workshop enabled researchers navigate patent laws, publication rights, and international collaborations," said Dr. Navleen Multani, Dean Research. Dr. Gaurav Dhiman, Assistant Professor, shared his experiences of garnering international patents. Vote of thanks was extended by Dr. Amitoj Singh, Associate Dean Academic Affairs. 40 participants from Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar; Panjab University Chandigarh; Punjabi University, Patiala; NMIMS University, Chandigarh; Chandigarh University, Mohali; Maharishi Markandeshwar (Deemed to be) University, Mullana; Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Patiala; Government Bikram College of Commerce, Patiala; Layallpur Khalsa College, Kapurthala; Public College Samana attended the workshop.
